The Attire of a Woman's Heart

First Timothy 2:9-12 is a passage of Scripture most “modern thinkers” do not like. The very idea that God would limit what women can do in the church is a real turn-off to many people. What people need to realize, however, is that the Almighty God, who created us, knows what works best in human relationships, whether in the home or in the church! Concerning leading worship where both men and women are present, God wills that “men pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting” (1 Tim. 2:8). The word translated “men” (from aner, ἀνὴρ) is gender specific for males (same word in Acts 8:12; 17:12; 1 Tim. 2:12). In contrast to men who are to worship by providing holy leadership, women are to worship by allowing the men to lead. This is not easy to those of a worldly-mind. However, when Christian women correctly “dress” their hearts, God’s “commandments are not burdensome” (1 Jn. 5:3), and His will is done!

Internal Wardrobe

Paul, through the Holy Spirit, addressed the proper, spiritual clothing when he wrote, “in like manner also, that the women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with propriety and moderation, not with braided hair or gold or pearls or costly clothing, ¹⁰but, which is proper for women professing godliness, with good works” (1 Tim. 2:9-10). In these verses, Paul gave three pieces of the character-outfit Christian women are to wear appropriate to their God-given role in the church.

First, Christian women are to dress modestly. The term “modest apparel [proper clothing, NAS; respectable apparel, ESV]” is from a word (kosmios, κοσμίος) that means respectable, honorable; in good taste. The Greek word occurs again only one other time, where it is used of an elder’s qualification to be “of good behavior [orderly, ASV; respectable, NAS]” (1 Tim. 3:2). A person’s outward appearance is a mere reflection of her heart (cf. 1 Pet. 3:3-4). What do Christian women reflect when they wear clothes that attract undue attention to themselves, whether it is too much or not enough? A woman who wants all the attention will not easily be submissive to men in matters of leading worship.

Second, Christian women are to dress their hearts respectfully. The word “propriety [shamefacedness, KJV; modestly, NAS; with modesty, ESV]” is translated from a word (aidos, αἰδώς) that means modesty, reverence, respect. The word occurs again in some manuscripts only in Hebrews 12:28, where it is translated “reverence.” Respect, or reverence, for God is necessary for a woman to fulfill her role of submission to a man’s leading in worship. Respect for God’s word will allow her to submit and follow God’s instruction on any matter, including worshipping God in spirit and in truth (Jn. 4:24).

Third, Christian women are to dress in sound judgment. The word translated “moderation [sobriety, KJV; discretely, NAS; self-control, ESV]” (from sophrosune, σωφροσύνη) means reasonableness, rationality, mental soundness; good judgement, moderation, self control (1 Tim. 2:9, 15). When a Christian woman’s heart is dressed in this spiritual garment, she will be able to discern the boundaries that God has set and what actions, even those of a particular culture, would transgress those boundaries (cf. 1 Cor. 11:2-16; 14:34-35). A heart that is not clothed in these three traits will promote the opposite of a submissive spirit!

External Fashion

Rather than dressing to receive excessive attention given to physical adornment, Christian women are to dress themselves outwardly with good works (1 Tim. 2:10). Good works are to be her attraction and proof of a life given to God (cf. 1 Tim. 5:10). Jesus told all Christians, “Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven” (Mt. 5:16). As male prayers are to come from holy lives, so female dress is to come from godly hearts that translate into submissive lives. Women who claim to be followers of God ought to internally dress and externally act as such, but that can only happen when their hearts are clothed with modesty, respect, and sound judgment! Indeed, “Charm is deceitful and beauty is passing, But a woman who fears the LORD, she shall be praised” (Pr. 31:30). ♥ Brian

A Great Resource has become available for every member of the South Florida Avenue church of Christ! The apostle Peter's last written words were, "grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory both now and forever. Amen" (2 Pet. 3:18). Knowledge of God's word is of supreme importance! Not only must our faith originally come from Bible knowledge (Rom. 10:17), it must continue and end through Bible

We have subscribed to PTP365, a digital library with thousands of sermons to listen to or watch. Lessons can be searched by speaker, topic, or Bible book, and you can even download lessons to your mobile device. There are no viewing or download limits, so please take advantage of this great resource!

knowledge! We must constantly learn about "Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith" (Heb. 12:2). Our eldership has made available this treasure trove of Bible based information. This resource contains sound information on almost every Bible topic of major interest. There are lessons on Bible verses, Bible characters, Bible places, and Christian living. There are workshop-type lessons on being a more effective elder, deacon, preacher, Bible class teacher, and song leader. There are also lessons to improve our parenting skills and on being a better neighbor. We can even take the lessons with us and listen to them in the car or on break at work. Let us constantly improve ourselves as Christians to God's glory ❤️ Brian

The End of Your Search for a Friendly Church . . .

We rejoice with the angels that David Fera was baptized into Christ Sunday, Sept. 23, 2018. We thank God for giving us His plan of salvation (Mt. 28:18-20; Acts 2:38). Let us welcome our new brother in Christ!

Attention Song Leaders & Future Song Leaders

In response to the recent congregational "vision survey," our elders would like, if at all possible, our evening song leaders to also use the PowerPoint to display their songs. This will be new for some and will involve a learning curve, but it is doable for the betterment of Christ's cause (Phil. 4:13). If you are not familiar with nor have access to PowerPoint, we will have volunteers to put the songs you select into PowerPoint. We will need assistance in this. If interested in serving in this capacity, Please Attend the Meeting Sunday, Oct. 7, After Evening Services. God can accomplish great things through us when we serve Him!
